Submission Categories

Research and Practice Articles (up to 15 pages or 3500 excluding references, words in main text, a total of 4 standard digital photographs/tables/figures, and a structured abstract of 180 words) report the results of original quantitative or qualitative public health research. These may include, but are not limited to: evaluations/reports, demonstrations of innovative programs, best practice, exemplars/community-engaged scholarship, service learning, emerging problems, evidence-based practice and preliminary findings.

Commentaries (up to 10 pages or 2500 words in main text, 2 tables/figures, and an unstructured abstract of 120 words) include scholarly essays, critical analyses, and policy papers.

Analytic Essays (up to 15 pages or 3500 words excluding references, in main text, a total of 4 standard digital photographs/tables/figures, and an unstructured abstract of 120 words) provide a forum for critical analyses of public health issues from disciplines other than the biomedical sciences, including, but not limited to: the social sciences, human rights, and ethics.

Briefs (up to 4 pages or 500 words excluding references, in main text, 2 tables/figures, and an abstract of up to 80 words) provide preliminary or novel findings. (What about a section exclusively for new book reviews?)

Editorials (may not exceed 1,200 words) are solicited based on recommendations from the Editorial Board, or members of MPHA. All recommendations require approval from the MJPH Editorial Board.

Letters to MJPH (must not exceed 400 words and contain no more than 10 references) are encouraged by our readers. Letters may include any public health topic.

Submission form—all authors must sign and submit via surface mail the submission form along with a draft article.
